My dear Salman,

Asslam-o-Alaikum. I hope you would be happy and enjoying good health. Today I want to tell you about an event which I did for the first time in my life. It was a unique and very useful experience.

You know that I always travelled with my father or my family from Lahore to Rawalpindi in the past. But recently I travelled alone on this journey. My father gave me very useful instructions and advices while departing. The idea of travelling alone was given to me by one of my friends. This was an adventure for me and really provided a very useful experience. In the journey I settled and dealt with all matters myself which provided me a lot of confidence and courage. I also faced different kinds of situations. I came across different kinds of people in the way. It proved the saying that making journey is always productive.

I would like to repeat the experience in the near future and would also recommend you do the same.

Hope to see you in soon. Please convey my compliments to you parents.

Yours sincerely,

X.Y.Z.

My dear Naeem,

Asslm-o-Alaikum. I hope you would be healthy with the grace of Almighty. Today I want to tell you about an event which I carried out successfully.

You know that the recent floods have played havoc with the country. Many areas were in inundated with flood water. The most adverse situation was of the low-lying areas. I happened to visit a village struck by the floods. The people became homeless, their cattle and live-stock drowned in the water. Their fields and ripe crops were flooded with water. Their lives were saved by the efforts of army jawans and local volunteers of Civil Defence. They were provided shelter but there was nothing to eat. The children were crying for milk. I immediately came home and told the situation to the people of my area. A good amount was collected immediately. I accompanied by my friend purchased cooked rice, disposable plates, juices and bottles of mineral water and rushed to that village. The affected people were hungry. The eatables were distributed amongst them. I am thankful to Allah Almighty who gave me the
